

Sing Ireland

Board of Directors

Mrs. Justice Catherine McGuinness, Honorary President

Catherine McGuinness is a former President of the Law Reform Commission, a former judge of the Circuit Court (1994-1996), the first woman to serve on the Court, and justice of the High Court (1996-2000) and of the Supreme Court (2000-2006). In January 2012 Catherine was appointed to the Council of State by President Michael D. Higgins.

Alan Kelly- Chairman

A communications professional working in the sport sector, Alan was appointed to the Board in 2015 and elected as Chairman in October 2018. A qualified secondary level music teacher, he left the profession to pursue a career in communications and sponsorship. He is a graduate of Trinity College Dublin, the DIT Conservatory of Music and Drama, The Irish Academy of Public Relations and the European Sponsorship Association. Alan is also a member of the Public Relations Institute of Ireland. In his spare time he is the musical director of Millicent Singers in Clane, County Kildare. Aside from his love of singing, choirs and music generally, Alan 's interests lie in Formula One, Golf and Poker.

Mark Armstrong

Mark Armstrong is one of Ireland's best known musicians with a wide-ranging career spanning over thirty five years. As a conductor he has immense experience on the concert platform and in the recording studio and has conducted many of Ireland's top ensembles, choirs and bands. As an arranger and composer Mark has created many works for choirs, orchestras and bands and is an award-winning published composer of choral music. He is a regular adjudicator at Irish choral music festivals and has acted as conducting tutor on courses conducted by the Association of Irish Choirs. Mark has held the position of Director of the Defence Forces School of Music since 2010 in the rank of Lieutenant Colonel with responsibility for the formation of Defence Forces musical policy, performance and training of Irish military and pipe bands.

Jean Coleman

Jean has been involved in choral music from an early age. She received vocal training with the late Brían Ó Dubhghaill, and was a member of Cantairí Óga Átha Cliath for 16 years, traveling with them all over Europe. After a choral break, in 2009 she became a member of New Dublin Voices. She also serves on the NDV committee as Treasurer Professionally, Jean is a Certified Public Accountant and Chartered Tax Advisor. She heads up Employment Tax for EMEA for Google, having previously been a Director with PwC. Jean served on the board of The Volleyball Association of Ireland for 4 years in various roles as ordinary board member and treasurer.

Jim Fitzsimons

Jim Fitzsimons has sung with many choirs, including Nas na Ri Singers, Kilkenny Arts Festival Chorus, Dublin County Choir and currently sings with Culwick Choral Society and Dublin City Choral Union. He has worked as a Management Consultant for over 20 years all over the World and has specialised in Innovation, funding and managing research projects involving companies, academic groups and funding agencies,. In addition he has been President of The Institute of Management Consultants and Advisors in Ireland and has served on the boards of many community organisations.

Jane Pilkington

Jane holds a Degree in Politics and Philosophy from UCD, a Diploma in Legal Studies from DIT and a Diploma in Commercial Litigation from the Law Society of Ireland. She qualified as a solicitor in 2000 and is a partner in Mason Hayes & Curran Solicitors where she practices commercial litigation and business immigration.

Raegnha Zutshi

Originally from Malaysia, Raegnha enjoyed an international upbringing, growing up living in Singapore, India, and USA before settling in Ireland. She completed her studies at TCD in 2014, obtaining a B.A. in Music, an M.Phil in Composition and a P.Dip. in Education. She has been very active as a choral singer, having sung with many choirs, including Trinity Singers and New Dublin Voices, and has travelled internationally with the Mornington Singers and the Irish Youth Chamber Choir. She also founded Trinity Belles, a female a cappella group based in Trinity Colleg. Raegnha has composed and arranged for many ensembles, both choral and instrumental, and was involved as a music advisor in the Irish feature film, Dare to be Wild.

Caroline Connolly

Caroline Connolly joins the board following her election at the company AGM in September 2018. Caroline is a choral singer who has been involved with a number of choirs in Dublin: The Culwick Choral Society, Cantairi Avondale Dublin Bach Singers and the newly formed Dublin City Choral Union and her native Dundalk. She works in communications at one of the country's largest private third level institutions and is a former editor of Focus magazine. Caroline studied voice with Alan Leech, is a regular attendee at the Association's International Choral Conducting Summer School and is a graduate of the Royal Irish Academy of Music's Diploma in Community and Group Music Teaching programme.